

THE ASIAN AGE

KOLKATA • THURSDAY • 20 JANUARY 2011

New venture launched to develop skills

AGE CORRESPONDENT

KOLKATA

Jan. 19: Globsyn Skills, a joint venture between the Union finance ministry-backed National Skill Development Corporation (NSDC) and Kolkata-based Globsyn Group was launched on Wednesday.

This joint venture entity will establish centres for skill development in the electronics and IT hardware, ITeS and organised retail sectors.

After announcing the signing of a joint venture agreement between NSDC and Globsyn Group, CEO and managing director of NSDC Dilip Chenoj said, "This joint venture entity will train 3.52 lakh youths in dif-